MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM : Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations, NFAC

SUBJECT : Economic, Political and Social Consequences of Urbanization in Less Developed Countries,
Thursday, 20 September 1979

1. On the Director's behalf, you are invited to participate in a discussion/dinner on the above subject in the DCI conference room (7D64) on the date and time appointed. We will examine as comprehensively as we can the social, economic, and political forces unleashed by exploding urban growth and their effects on political stability.

2. The following have been invited from outside and have accepted.

Dr. Brian J. L. Berry, Harvard University
Dr. Joan Nelson, Johns Hopkins University
Mrs. Nelle Temple, Assistant to Katherine Graham
Samuel Eaton, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Inter-American Affairs, Department of State
Donald Sherk, Senior Economist for Bank Policy, Office of International Development Banks, Treasury
Department

3. Our discussion will be led off by Dr. Joan Nelson who will speak briefly on the implications of rapid urban growth in the Third World.

4. The plan for the evening is as follows: The company will assemble in the DCI conference room between 5:30 and 6:00. Refreshments will be served. Our discussion will begin at 6:00 and continue until 7:00 when dinner will be served. After dinner, about 7:30, we shall resume the discussion and continue until about 8:30. If you are unable to attend, please call extension

DCI: I checked with [] on this, noting that there was no one from DDO attending. He allowed as how since there was no one geographic area involved there was no DDO candidate who came to mind. In keeping with your policy of trying to involve the DDO in these affairs we agreed that he would talk to John McMahon on it and see if there is anyone from DDO who might benefit/contribute to this session.
